DELTETTO 1953

1980 - 2010

30 years of the Classic Method

It was the year 1980.

The year that opened the doors to a new, roaring decade marked by important events. A year in which a young Antonio Deltetto laid the foundations for his great passion: the Classic Method.

Each year that has passed has been marked by events that have influenced today's society, our way of life and human evolution. With this limited-edition project, we want to celebrate the history that binds us to the Classic Method through a late dégorgement wine of 10 years.

An exclusive family collection that is able to best express the longevity and elegance of our bubbles, reliving together some events that have culturally marked the year.

International Biodiversity Year

2010 is the International Year of Biodiversity proclaimed by the United Nations. Biodiversity is a universal heritage of humanity, so preserving it must be our priority. Biodiversity refers to the immense variety of living species on Earth. We, too, are part of it and it is our duty to do our best to respect and preserve it.

Burj Khalifa, the tallest skyscraper in the world

In Dubai, the Burj Khalifa is inaugurated as a project by Skidmore, Owings and Merrill. With a height of 829.80 metres, it is the tallest structure ever built by man. A symbol of power, greatness and engineering prowess, recognised all over the world.

03

Fight Against Poverty and Social Exclusion

2010 is designated as the European Year for Combating Poverty and Social Exclusion, with a view to making a decisive difference. The primary objective is the elimination of the limitations that impoverish the lives of people connected to social, economic and health aspects. The project is developed through the recognition of the rights of every person, the implementation of social inclusion policies and the strengthening of cohesion factors.

J.D. Salinger, the American writer who left his stamp on a generation

04

On 27 January, Jerome David Salinger, one of the most influential writers of the 20th century, left us. Through his most famous novel, "The Catcher in the Rye", he gave a voice to the frustration and rebellion of an entire generation of young teenagers. A literary phenomenon that has as its main themes the escape from society and its hypocrisy, the fear of growing and reaching adulthood.

South Africa Soccer World Cup

05

Strongly desired by Nelson Mandela, this championship takes place for the first time on the African continent. To the sound of the buzzing Vuvuzelas fanfare, the country took this event as a great opportunity for growth and development. Definitely one of the most exciting and engaging world championships ever.

Shanghai Expo

06

"Better City, Better Life" is the main theme for the Shanghai Expo 2010. The event therefore aims to explore the phenomenon of urbanisation globally, in order to improve the quality of life in urban areas. The Universal Exposition represents the progress of the human race by selecting the best that society has to offer, promoting the communication of great ideas and contributing to their fruition. An important opportunity for cooperation between different cultures.
